“ Mom,

As I sit here and wonder what are you doing right now? I know one thing, you are better off where you are!! know there was a door especially for you on the side of the gates. You did right by all of us, and I am so much better as a person because of you. You stood by me mom through thick and thin and always were there to pick me up or kick me in the butt when I needed it the most. You raised us well and even up until you passed were still raising us whether you knew it or not! Rest mom rest you deserve it! I LOVE YOU MOM!! “ To the Wilson Family:

You have our deepest sympathy.

Dan, Robbie, we have great memories of the time you worked for us at the Exline GC. ï¿½Your Grandfather Rich lived next door to us in Kankakee for quite a few years, we were very close to your step-grandmother Vernice.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. ï¿½Sorry we couldn't express our sympathy in person.

God Bless.##imported-begin##Ralph & Natalene Ferrari##imported-end##
