“ Love & prayers to all Jason's family & friends. He was the nicest guy with the best smile! We've known each other since childhood, but sometimes years would go by without crossing paths. When we did, it was always with a hug & a chat to catch up. He fought a brave fight, and I'm sad that he is gone. Rest in peace friend.

“ My Sister & I were so grateful to have Jason looking out for us throughout our childhood years. One day while Jason was visiting with our Father he told him that he was concerned about us. Our Father told him that is why I have you my friend to look out for my Daughter's and protect them. Jason would always take the time to listen & talk to us about what was going on in our lives. We always enjoyed catching up with him at the steak cookout get-togethers our Father would have at his home for Labor Day's. We will always cherish those memories we had with Jason, their friend Dale Breitbarth, & our Father Edward Delabre III. The Trio of Friends are back together again in Heaven & I'm sure they are catching up having long conversations, fishing & hunting. Our thoughts & prayers go out to Mary & her Family. We pray that God gives you all Peace, Love, Guidance & Solace to get through this time of hardship. May you rest in peace Jason. 🙏❤️✝️

“ My condolences to the family! Jason was a good man, I used to crack his back every morning at start of shift when I was a group leader. He took the time to come by my house and plow my driveway when I shattered both my heels. May he rest in peace! Tim Fernandez

“Mary, Do you remember our first dates as newly wed couples? I still can see us sitting there and talking believing ourselves to be ‘real adults’. How much we had to learn! Jason had recently left the Marine Corps and John was about to enter the Army. I remember being with you in the hospital after your first was born and Jason being at your side. Attentive and loving-as always! I remember the girl in school who loved me so greatly- you! I remember Kellie’s best friend- you! I remember your parents as if I were in your childhood-kitchen right now. What aches so deep for me right now for you is that I’m not there for you now. Half way around the world-I can only offer my deepest love and prayer support. I can offer our mutual belief in a Holy God, Who does NOT slumber or sleep. I can offer an Army-wife heart-which has seen more suffering than personally experienced. I can offer you my deep Faith that this tremendous loss will be a part of your Testimony- While there’s much I can offer from this side of Heaven, I cannot offer you understanding of your heart right now, as a wife, mother or, grandmother. I can only let you know I see you. I’m thinking of you. I’m thankful for you. My heart aches for you. I know you and I believe that on the other side of The Jordan, Jason will be drawing pictures in the sand and he will rise up with a SHOUT and come running to meet you upon your arrival. (Do you know that hymn? Let me know, I will send it to you.) I will see you both at the Eastern Gate on the Great Day! Deepest Love- truly- Deepest Love, Kellie (Gray) Coombs
