“ I only met Jean over a month ago and took care of her a few times, but in that short time I realized what a special wife, mother and grandmother she was. She also was a very special patient to me. I have been thinking and praying for your family this past weekend and you will continue in my prayers. I also want to say what a special and great family all of you are. I am so glad I was able to be there in Jeans last days on earth. I hope I see you all again in the future. Take care of your father and tell him I said hello##imported-begin##Renee Mishel Applegate##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jean was a remarkable woman. She seemed so positive every time that I was around her. I know that she loved her grandchildren. They seemed to be the topic of most conversations that I had with her. I'm sorry that I can't be at the visitation due to prior commitments, but my thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time of loss. Dave Trent

“ Dear Wendell, David, Kevin, Paula and Michelle, spouses and the much loved grandchildren of Jean, Those Irish eyes and smile were priceless. We never knew them to go unmatched with a genuine interest in the person to whom Jean was interacting. Her concern for others, and its manifestation in kind words, a promised prayer were legendary. Like her father before her, she was a people person, of good humor and possessed of a certain quality that we attribute to those of the Irish race. It must be a grand reunion for her with Mary, the mother she never was able to know in her lifetime, and her father, the genial Hilaire, "Patsy" Smith. Thinking of you in your loss, Cousins, Elmira and Gene
