

Jeanette L. James

March 25, 1935 - February 10, 2014

Jeanette L. James, 78, of Manteno, passed away Monday (Feb. 10, 2014) at Heritage Woods in Manteno. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Heritage Woods, 365 Diversatech Drive, Manteno. Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Bourbonnais, is in charge of arrangements.

Ms. James was an office worker at Potter Electric, Mound Grove Cemetery, Swift & Co., Bunge Foods and A.O. Smith Corp. She was born March 25, 1935, in Kankakee, the daughter of Terry and Cora Bauer Oakes. She was a volunteer with Catholic Charities.

Surviving are one son and daughter-in-law, Dennis and Diane Corriveau, of Dayton, Ohio; one daughter and son-in-law, Denise and Tap Hornor, of Alhuey, Sinaloa, Mexico; four grandchildren, Tap, Brian and Paul Hornor and Jordan Corriveau; nine great-grandchildren; one sister, Dolores Nielson, of Oceanside, Calif.; and her pet cockatiel, Baby.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Thanks to all who have expressed well wishes and prayers. Mom loved her two kids immensely and was faithful to expose them to God's house and His Word. She taught us to be kind, polite, to clean the house, to clean our plates, to do dishes, to love animals and to work hard. She was a constant example of perseverance through whatever hardships came her way. We could always count on Mom being there when others may not have been or when life was turned upside down. What else can we say? She was there, she sacrificed for us and she loved us. We love you Mom. We'll miss you.
