“ *To The Family of Jeannine Kinkin:
My heartfelt sympathy goes out to all of Jeannine's loved ones. I met Jeannine, about 4 weeks ago at Provena Heritage Village as I was making rounds. I'm Chaplain Carole R. DiZeo the Director of Pastoral Care in Kankakee. Jeannine and I had a most pleasant conversation. Jeannine was telling me about her family and how her grandson was home from Iraq, but was going back on another tour. Jeannine had, in her room, a stuffed animal that her grandson had given her and that started the conversation. Jeannine's eyes lit-up when she spoke of her family. In spite of her illness Jeannine's uplifting spirit was so refreshing to be apart of as I was visiting with Jeannine. What a pleasant lady with a lot of hope.
May you and your loved ones be filled with fond and loving memories of a lady that was full of life and love of her family and friends.
Blessings of peace, comfort and healing. Sincerely, Chaplain Carole R. DiZeo*
