“Jeremy had a very important role in our boy Aaron's recovery at Shapiro Developmental Center. He was with Aaron, providing support for him from the first day he was admitted on to Unit 514B and remained a central part of his recovery to the end. His presence in Aaron's life was vital to his recovery, helping him face his fears and anxiety. For this the Janzon family will remain eternally grateful and humbled to know Jeremy. God bless you Jeremy! RIP

“ We were classmates at Shapiro he was always upbeat and funny. We ended up on the same unit. It was such a joy to see him and hear him say "here comes trouble". Or seeing him pull into the parking lot in the morning. He's gonna be missed and he was loved by everybody. Rest peacefully big papa.

“ Your kindness in my most difficult time is what took us from co-workers to family. As we navigate through this sadness I am reminded that energy doesn't die but transitions. So I'll see you on the bright side. Shine bright always and be that guiding star for your boys. Peace and blessings to all!
