“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I worked directly with both Jim and Joe during my time at Valspar. I've been gone from there for many years but still have ties to the place. I was so shocked when I heard this news. A complete tragedy. My thoughts and prayers go to all in the Krumwiede family. My memories with him are good ones. We had many laughs. My best to you all.

“ I am sitting here reflecting after hearing of my friend passing. It is never easy to know the struggles others face. You never know both sides of every story. There is one thing I do know that God never created a mistake, God never stopped loving someone that sinned. My heart is sad for my friends back home that lost a friend and definitely sad his kids may never understand the depth of his love for them. He was a loyal friend and respectful person. He loved his family dearly and his children at a level I pray someday they will learn. You will be dearly missed!!!!!!
