“ Uncle Jimmy, Even though the years have passed slowly from warm smile. I never forgot how kind-hearted and loving you were. Of course there was always trials and tribulations but you stuck through them never forget that. You're in a better place now and I know the Lord is smiling down on us, because that's the one thing you always did best to pray to you and you can fix things for us because that's who you were. I know you when my Lord knows that I need to begin my new life. Have a great day!

“ Jimmy, It was hard to say good-bye yesterday, although we all know you are in a better place. I will miss you and our banter. I really love you and know from all of the faces and tears how deeply you meant to all of us. You and I were always both very emotional, and that often came through. Your heart was big and you cared tremendously. Hopefully we will all get together as a family more and share good times and memories of you. I love you always. “ Although Jim and I had our differences, I still cared about him deeply. I½I'll never forget all the happy times in our 21 years together. I½I want to convey my deepest condolences to his family and hope that someday they can forget all the bad things and remember Jim when he was happy. I½Just remember, things are said when a person is angry or upset and it is not always the real story. I½The only one that should be judging us is our maker.##imported-begin##Debbie Fisher##imported-end##
