“ Although Jim and I had our differences, I still cared about him deeply. ĩ½I'll never forget all the happy times in our 21 years together. ĩ½I want to convey my deepest condolences to his family and hope that someday they can forget all the bad things and remember Jim when he was happy. ĩ½Just remember, things are said when a person is angry or upset and it is not always the real story. ĩ½The only one that should be judging us is our maker.##imported-begin##Debbie Fisher##imported-end##

“ Bro-bro
 My brother, my friend, its so hard for me to sit and think of the times we have had and the times we shared, knowing; there can never be more. I know the hurt that emcompassed the last days of your life, and now that same hurt is deep with-in my soul. Now the hurt for you is done, the pain has long faded as the Angels and our Mother took your hand and led you to happiness. I can't imagine living a day without you. I love you, Bro
And then there were three.....
