“ Dear Ms. Osmond,

Sorry I waited until now to say thank you from the bottom of my heart. When I first started high school I was so afraid of you! Boy, how that changed. I never would have made it out of high school without your support and guidance. My home life was troubled and you tried and helped me get thru so much. You were truly an inspiration in my life and I was so blessed to have you. I cannot express enough how sorry I am not to tell you this to your face and give you a long deserved hug. Instead of fearing you - you became a shelter from the storm. So thank you and may you rest in peace. Thankfully, Pam Romanek “ Today is February 4th, 2016 and it's your birthday! You would be 82 years young today. I just wanted to tell you how much you are still missed and loved. I still find myself half expecting to find you sitting in the livingroom when I get home. My Mom and I missed you so much but now she is at home with you and our Lord. Hopefully, one day I will see you both again...

“ Jo was my Aunt Jo and from speaking with Maureen, the love of Jo's life, I know she was Aunt Jo to many people. Jo never entered the room without her smile getting there before her. Her laugh was from her soul and she laughed alot! Jo kept a positive attitude through her illness and fought with the same determination that she lived. I would hang up from a conversation and she made me feel better than I could make her feel! She was always a rock in our family and the spark to any get together. Jo loved and was loved in return. What a joyous reunion she must be having right now! Mary
