“ My deepest condolences to Joel's family and friends. I was a customer of Joel's PicaPet since the 1980's and two of the fish he sold me are still alive and kicking (16 and 15 years old) and I sorely miss his stories and the store more than I can ever tell. He would "forget" my name and always called me Pat and it always made me SMILE!!! I think of him every time I look at my fishtank which is every day. THANK YOU JOEL FOR ALL THE YEARS and for just being in my life.

“ Uncle Joel will be remembered for his genuine love of animals & his green thumb. He was an active church member & a Knights of Columbus member. Though he will be missed by his older sister Rita, family & friends, he is at rest with his Heavenly Father where he joins his parents & younger sister Linda. Thankful for the support & friendship of his dear friend Jan. Glad we had a nice visit in July. God bless you, Joel.
