“ Johnny was my very best friend from the day he moved in the house on Forrest avenue until I moved to Chicago. I½Johnny and I spent hours and hours riding bikes and our big fun, playing scrabble. I½I remember Richard playing with us and sometimes playing double solitare....Once Johnny got stuck with the Q in scrabble, this was maybe 5th grade. I½He wanted to make the word "quap" and I disagreed. I½We argued and then laughed so hard we cried.

 I½I am so sorry for Johnny's passing. I½I ran into him at Walgreens getting medicine and he did not really want to talk, I did not know he was ill. I½I hugged him and told him how much he looked like Raymond.

 I½I was unable to attend the wake, my father died that day and I was the one holding his hand, but I sure thought of you all. I½

 I½I loved Johnny and am sorry for the years that passed without seeing him. I½I remember his sweet heart and funny nature.

 I½I½Mrs. Klingler accept my condolences, Richard I so badly wanted to say hello, I'd love to hear from you. I½I am married with a 20 year old son.

again, sorry about Johnny, he was my best friend for many years.

“ I worked with John first at the Rte. 50 Convenience store in Bradley, then later at the Meadowview Citgo gas station while I was finishing college. I½John was a good coworker, competent, professional, fair, and fun. I½He had a sly sense of humor and could always make you smile. I½I hope his life since I knew him was a blessing to him and those around him. I½I was glad to know him. I½

See you on the other side, John. I½###imported-begin###M (Mark) L Woodall###imported-end###
