“Rose, We were so very sorry to hear of your fathers passing. We know how much both of your parents meant to you. Although we did not know your Dad personally, if he had anything to do with shaping the person that you are today; he must have been one heck of a great guy. Please know that we are keeping you and your family in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. May it comfort you to know how much your friends truly care.

With deepest condolences.
