

John J. McNamara

January 23, 1928 - August 15, 2015

Come To Me My Good and Faithful Servant

John McNamara was called to heaven on August 15, 2015 where he joined his parents John and Marie McNamara his brothers Thomas and James and his beloved son Stephen McNamara.

John is survived by his proudest and most noteworthy accomplishment – his family. He is survived by his wife and sweetheart of 64 years Eileen Sullivan McNamara (who has recently passed) away his brother Timothy McNamara his daughters Margaret Baker, Anne Rock, Eileen McKenzie, Mary McNamara, his son's John and Joseph McNamara. He is also survived by 15 grandchildren John IV, Clare, Matthew, Mary, John, Michael, Steven, Patrick, Julie, Elizabeth, Michael Oliver, Margaret, Ryan, Tyler, and Daniel. Is also survived by eight great-grandchildren. He enjoyed his role as the favorite uncle Jack to his many nephews and nieces especially for those whose parents preceded him in death.

John was given the gift of a short illness before he passed away. His family was blessed with the gift of one last visit with "big Poppa/Pops, our father and patriarch.

John was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois. He went to Loras College where he attained a bachelors in business administration. He had many jobs in his career including teaching, consulting, and production and control.. His career took him out of the Chicago area to Seattle Washington where he works for Boeing company for 10 years but move back to the Midwest in 1973 and settled in Kankakee Illinois working for A.O. Smith company. He accompanied A.O. Smith to El Paso Texas where he finally retired. He and his lovely wife moved to Tequesta Florida for the last chapter in their life where they lived for the last 25 years.

John is much loved by all and will be truly missed by many. Services will be held in Bourbonnais, Illinois.
