“ May those beautiful yesterdays always remain in your heart, and your sorrow gently fade away. May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love, and peace in knowing your friends are praying for you. Into each life some rain must fall but sunshine does appear. It brings with it a rainbow and a message that is clear. Please know that you are not alone that we all hold you dear. Let faith and hope into your heart and keep your memories near. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ John lived right across the street from us. One of the best neighbors. We enjoyed talking to him, when we would catch each other outside. We look out at his house every day and think about him. Dearest sympathy to the family. Sorry we wont be able to make the service, Bob has dialysis during that time. -The Robert Suprenant Family##imported-begin##Robert & Dorothy Suprenant##imported-end##
