I worked with John at Plant Kerger's. It was my first real job and I was in high school. John was a gentleman and a kind soul. Someone for a teenager to look up to.

May you rest in peace "Uncle John". I am one of Mona Williams granddaughters and I loved Uncle Jihn very much. We spent a lot of time with him and Gran after my mom passed away. He was always dressed to the nines and smelled of Old Spice cologne. He was a classy man.

What a lovely person, always a smile and warm welcome. I know of Plant Kerger's, my dad would buy his suites there. I did not meet John till I lived in the apartment below. So energetic and kind he had a story for everything. Thanks for your service and special blessings to us all on this earth. Kim
