“ My sympathy goes out to all of us. ĩ½John was a great friend. ĩ½He meant a lot to all the girls at Jewel. ĩ½His humor and thoughtfulness was something we looked forward to every Thurs. morning.

I am sorry to miss his services, we are leaving town for a family wedding in Iowa. ĩ½Please know that I am with my "paper bag John" in thoughts and prayers.

Much love, Helen ĩ½###imported-begin##Helen Clymer###imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. ĩ½Your dad was a great guy with a wonderful sense of humor; he always had a smile and made others smile, too. ĩ½He was family to all of my family for so many years...I know my parents never had a better neighbor or friend. ĩ½He will be sorely missed but we are all so grateful for so many years of fun times and good memories shared on Dobson. ĩ½Big hugs to all of you.

“ We would be there if it was at all possible. I learned a lot from him. He taught me about responsibility and loyalty and hanging in there when things all fell apart. Along with my brother and sisters, we developed our own twisted senses of humor and appreciation for the weirdness of the world from our Dad. This quote from William Butler Yeats is appropriate to describe his personality, "Being Irish", he had an abiding sense of tragedy, which sustained him through temporary periods of joy." His last laugh, checking out on Christmas morning, was a particularly elegant touch, we all agree. He was a really great guy. What more can be said about your father? We miss him already.##imported-begin##Jerry O'Malley##imported-end##
