“ I remember his smile and his presence. As a child, he always seemed like a giant to me. I also remember the large Christmas tree that they always put up. He and Mrs. Wade always thought of me when they bought my sister (Tigger) gifts. I always loved that about them. My prayers to the family.##imported-begin##Miranda Howery Jeter##imported-end##

“ John was my mentor when I started working on the frames in the Kankakee office. ı̇½We had wonderful conversations. ı̇½

My fondest memory was seeing him in bib overalls with some of his grand children running over to him because he always had candy hidden in one of the pockets. ı̇½See you tomorrow, brother.
