“ Jonathan you were a joy to be around the strenght you showed and the will to live you were an amazing nephew we will never forget you. Although we did not get to spend much time together in the last few years we still thought about you. We will meet again someday than you will be filled with joy cause you are much happier now up there in heaven running around and playing like you wish you could always. We will watch over your mom and my sister cause she dearly misses you. Love you always.##imported-begin##mark, Deb Mulder##imported-end##
