“ Jordan was one of my former, well remembered, and we'll liked students at KCC. He was so quiet, so I picked on him in a good way to try to get him to open up, which he did. He was a great student with a thirst for knowledge. It was with great sadness that I learned of his passing. I will pray for his sole, and I will pray for those he left behind. Those of us with faith in God know it is only goodbye for a little while. God bless him with salvation.

“ I remember Jordan as an inquisitive and energetic third grader. He had such a beautiful smile. Saying I'm sorry for your loss doesn't even begin to say how much my heart is breaking for your family.

“ Jordan is our much loved nephew who was so much fun to be around! He always greeted us, asked how we were doing, laughed a lot, very considerate! So sweet & kind & nice to everyone ! Such a close knit family & he was the center of all the little kids when we were all together! He made sure everyone got their turn when they were playing or riding one of their toys in Grandpa & Grandma's garage! Just such a wonderful & thoughtful young man who will be so missed by his family & friends!

“ The memory I would like to share of Jordan is when he was in fourth grade. I was his fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Creek. He was a quiet kid in class. (I don't think he particularly enjoyed school, but tolerated it.) We had a fun year that year. We had a "Wax Museum, science fair, parties, field trips like walking to the Dairy Queen, and going to the Olivet Planetarium. He told me once that his favorite thing about fourth grade was me reading aloud to the class. I looked at him and thought what about all of the parties, field trips and special projects? Nope! He said, "I like when you read and make your silly voices." He also said he liked when I was goofy which by the way he seemed to think I acted goofy much of the time! :) This goes to show what type of person Jordan was, he was a simple, down to earth, sweet young man. I am sure those core values did not change much over the years. I was able to see him throughout the years as he got older and his face would always brighten when he saw me and I squealed my excited hello! He will be greatly missed.

Thinking of his family and friends. May you all find comfort in your memories of Jordan.
