“ to Jordan-

From middle school to the summer at the boys and girls club to you coming to tucson, my going to Illinois.. our late night talks of life, love, philosophy and everything in between.. I miss you Jordan. I miss your everything- your smile and your eyes and your laugh, your squirrel noises and horse noises and random youtube videos and how we were gonna have a kid and name it a number because we were gonna have too many to remember all their names.. you were a great person Jordan, in life and I'm sure in death too. I miss you so much already and it hasn't been more than a few days.. I hope that wherever you are you have found peace and happiness and that you know how much you are missed and loved and how you're in all of our thoughts as we wake up and as we go to sleep and when we smoke Newport cigarettes.. This isn't goodbye, this is see you later. I refuse to say goodbye, I will see you again someday; someday, somehow.. We will meet again another day, another time, in another place.. Wish you were here. <3 Love you Jordan.

To Your Family-

I am so sorry for your loss, but he is in another place and when he and I used to talk about death it was always about how excited he was to see the other side, and about how he knew he would get there early because it will be such a vast and beautiful and intriguing place he will need lots of time to explore it- and that he will await for all of us. I know that he is looking down on us all, probably wanting to slap us for crying because he would want us to move on and be happy.. I am here for all of you; if you need anything, please let me know.##imported-begin##Tiphania misses you.##imported-end##

“ I met this guy one night during the summer and only got to hang with him that one night. But during that time i got to meet someone special. He was so fun to be around with even though i only knew him for a short time. He ended up driving me home that night because i was unable too and he was just looking out for me. That shows how loving and caring he was even if he didnt know someone that well. He will be in my thought and prayers.##imported-begin##Travis Medina##imported-end##

“ I can't make it to the services...this pains me greatly, as I wish I could pay my respects to someone who I was very much fond of for many years.

Jordan wasn't an incredibly close friend, but he was a school friend who made me feel welcome and accepted because we had similar interests, and by his naturally kind nature. i will never forget him for making me feel liked and wanted. He was a blessing to have in my life.

My greatest sympathies to the family for this terrible loss of someone who was truly a ray of light in the dark corners of our lives. He will be greatly missed, and the family will be in my thoughts and in my heart.

Fondly,

“ jordan was my, best friend, is my best friend. he was the only person that was always there for me. there was a time you would never see me, or jeff hudson without jordan. the three of us did everything together. and jordan (spoony) was the inspiration for everything we did. he is the reason i am who i am today. he was not only a good friend, and a great guy, he was my brother. and i thank god for bringing him into my life. even being younger than i am... i looked up to him. he will be missed and loved by everyone he met. that to me is quite an accomplishment. i ½###imported-begin##Josh (bagel) endicott###imported-end##

“ I miss Jordan aka Spoony so much... He taught me so much in this life that I am never going to forget and am so grateful for. He was the definition of a true friend. I'll never forget his songs, stories, jokes, actions, and smile.... Those are things that will live on in my memory forever. I still dont want to believe he's in Heaven now but I know thats where he belongs. I havent really stopped cryin yet and I know he wouldnt want it but I cant help it. He will be forever mmissd and always remember. My condolences go out to his family (and friends since to Spoony they were one in the same). I love you Jordan and I will see you at the crossroads.
