“ For Joe and his family,

 I will always remember Joe as bringing a smile to not only myself, but many others faces. We shared our love of the White Sox, the Bears, and golf together when we would run into eachother. Joe had a wonderful way of making me feel good, and showing that he cared. He always made me laugh and for that I am very thankful. He always was a sincere man who always was honest with what he said to you. For that, I respected him. Thank you Joe for giving me so many great memories that will last a lifetime. Your stories that you shared with me will always stay inside my heart, along with your memory.

Your friend,

“ Dearest Val, Joey and Sunny, Jennifer and Kelly, and kids...

Words cannot express how sorry we are to hear about your husband/dad/grandpa. Joe was everyones friend and such an awesome person! ĩ½He was so lucky to have all of you in his lives, as you were to have him. And the little ones will have so many great stories to tell their friends about their grandpa! :)

Let us know if you need ANYTHING AT ALL at any time!! We will be thinking of you all and praying for you each and every day. ĩ½Take care and be strong!

Love to all!
