

Joseph J. Power

May 29, 1947 - March 23, 2018

Joseph J. Power, age 70, of Bradley passed away Friday, March 23, 2018 at his home.

He was born May 29, 1947 in Kankakee, the son of Jerome and Madeleine Fortin Power. Joseph married Kandie Iland on October 18, 1966 in Bradley.

Joe served in the United States Air Force from 1966 to 1970 during the Vietnam era. He was a passionate aviation enthusiast. For many years he worked as a Journeyman Tool and Die Maker. Joe was the co-founder, with Kelly Gaba, of Grand Valley Distributors, Inc. Joe loved being Papa to his three grandchildren, Bella, Jack and LuLu. He loved watching their sporting events and he took interest and pride in everything they did.

Surviving are his wife, Kandie Power of Bradley; two daughters and sons-in-law, Cindy and Matthew St. Pierre of Bourbonnais, Amy and Jeremy Jeck of Bradley, three grandchildren, Isabella, Jackson and Libby Jeck of Bradley; his mother, Madeleine Power of Bradley; two brothers and three sisters-in-law, Thomas and Janet Power of Aurora, Colorado, Daniel and Sharon Power of Bourbonnais and Mary Power of Parker, Colorado; one sister and brother-in-law, Susan and David Boudreau of Chicago; one brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Lee and Pam Ifland of Kankakee; and many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his father, Jerome Power and one brother, James Power.

Visitation will be held from 9:00 a.m. until the 10:30 a.m. funeral service on Friday, June 1, 2018 at Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Bourbonnais.

Graveside services, with military rites, will be held at 12:30 p.m. at Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery, Elwood, Illinois.

In lieu of gifts or flowers, memorials be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
