“ Jo rented to me many years ago, Joe also put in a good word for me when I started working at Kankakee Community College in the position of Director of Radiogram. It has always been a pleasure to run into Joe and Kay a dinner or just around town. I will miss his Italian humor. I am sure many in the community feel the same way, God Bless Joe and God Bless Kay we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Edwin P. Viglia Jr.##imported-end##

“ I used to wait on Joe and Kay Serafini as a waitress at Mr. Steak/Fifth and Henry's Restaurant back in the early 198-0's. I enjoyed seeing them regularly in the restaurant until I left and went to Homestead restaurant, occasionally I would see either one them at Food Expo grocery store, too. On several occasions I would give them a call when I was in the market for an apartment or my sister was looking for an apartment to rent. Joe Serafini, and his wife, Kay always were very kind to me. Thankyou, Joe!##imported-begin##Barbara Blanchette Dams##imported-end##
