“ My Dearest Big Brother,

Instead of telling you text when you get home, I whispered in your ear I Love You! I'm going to miss everything about you, our random joke texts almost every day, our regular get together's at my house, our dinners out celebrating our birthdays, our haunted mansion adventures during Halloween, laughing until we were in pain, out fishing you on our fishing trip, and so much more! Most of all I'm going to miss you! Some of the best memories of my life were shared with you. My world was a better place because you were my big brother! I love you! I will miss, and you will always be in my heart! Thank you for being the brother I needed most! Rest in peace sweet brother.

“ To My Dearest Brother in Law, Bubby.

I remember the first time we met. It was before I knew your brother, before I met the family. I was 13 and you were an older, tall guy, probably 18 years old! I was walking the neighborhood with my girlfriend and you and your friend, Tim Richards were walking towards us. You stopped just a few feet in front of us, staring with the most serious face and said, “I shot him.” Referencing of course my friends newest “Who shot JR?” graphic tee. Ah, yes the 80’s. As we stood there speechless, you gave a chuckle and a smile and went on your way. You are the King of the one line zingers!

Through the years friendships were made and memories of late night at Miami bowl or sitting on the front stoop on St. Louis, of Torco gas station, Uno games and Aggravation. And yes, the Story. You know the one. The Story that never left a dry eye when being told. The Infamous Bus Ride from Florida to Chicago. As I write this I can hear your voice telling the story with David filling in the details.

Those were the days my friend...

Farewell for now. Love Tina

“ I'm heartbroken to learn of the passing of my dear friend Bubby. We shared many laughs together and created so many memories. While we haven't seen each other in recent years I thought of him often as well as the entire Travis family. You have my deepest sympathy.

“ *Uncle Bubby, I love you so much, you will ne
very much missed, and your funny jokes, I always remember as a young child you giving near hugs to me and tickling my knees as they are now still ticklish till this day, I find comfort and peace only cause I know your with Eddie again, give him big hugs and kisses from us all, we love you, it's not goodbye, it's I'll see you later and I will. I will always be here for aunt Sue , Amanda and Becky so don't you worry about that. Please leave them signs to help them find comfort.*

“ I was trying to find pictures of my brother to post I have some but not feeling well to go through all of them. Just wanted to talk about my hero my brother Joseph Travis. He did not save anyone's life but what he did do he fought for his own life. He had a rare kidney disease in which he was on dialysis for many many years. Until he got to the point where he needed a kidney. He was a devoted husband and father of 2 wonderful grown up ladies now who were definitely the apple of his eye. Anyway my niece his daughter gave up her kidney for him. He was fine the kidney worked his daughter was fine all was well for a couple of years until the disease took over once again. So it was once again Doctors, dialysis and the heartache of knowing that this time it will not pass. Preparing yourself for death trying to fight to live for your family is heroic. I don't think that I could have done it year after year so to me I'm proud of you proud that you fought to live. Our Dads Birthday was yesterday June 26, and today he reached down and took you home. Where you will be at peace good health and you will never stand alone. God bless you my Dear Sweet Brother I will miss you. And one day we will be linked again as a family. Our hearts are broken but know that you are loved our hero. Please pray especially for my Mother my Sister in law and my Nieces may they find comfort in their hearts. And our family. My brother is the one standing next to me my Grandmother taught me to call him Bubby and that was the name that remained the same he was our Bubby.
