“ Our deepest sympathy, Tom, to you and all who loved Judy. What a lovely person and a pleasure to know. I will always remember referring to her as "her eminence" as we all know the church secretary is the person who REALLY knows what's going on. Rest in peace, "Emmie".

“ My friend Judy, Gone from us way too soon. We need your laughter and your smile. I'll miss the sweet person that you were but you will always remain in my memory and in my heart. It's so hard to say goodbye to someone I've known since grade school but God has welcomed you now with his gentle and peace filled touch and you are home. I hope to see you again one day Judy, when tears will be wiped away and I will see my "favorite" church secretary again. Blessings on your journey. May my love accompany you forever.
