“ Hi Angela -

I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. I did not know her, but did know of her struggle. I'm not going to say any of the foolish things that people say that are meant to give you comfort but really make you want to scream "no I am not OK and its not going to be OK for a WHILE...."

What I will say is that in quiet times listen closely, because I believe those we love that leave us, in quiet moments, speak to us, and if you aren't careful, you miss it. So listen for your Mom and she will give you strength.

Again, I'm so sorry, and you will be in my prayers.

“ Rena,

We don't truly know pain until our mother is gone. I thought it would never diminish, but eventually it will at least be less. You are in my thoughts, so sorry for your loss.
