“ I knew Judy for a few short years and am happy to have kept that friendship through the decades as our children grew and we greyed.

I will always remember that laugh and the twinkle in her eyes.

I pray that, Jess, you and the girls find peace with His Will for Judy. Now you have your very own Angel looking out for you.

Love you all, Michele###imported-begin##Dan & Michele Bibby###imported-end##

“ *Its not the values of things or the amount that is given its the heart in it that is given I see when I person say, I am sorry for your loss. ï¿½Or my Dear you look like your Mother so much I had not known you where the eldest Daughter. ï¿½Or you are the writer and poet and your words are pictures your mother talked about and I thank you. ï¿½That is what I remember and cherish the most. The amounts given has been most surprising ans been wromly given to the hospice and is lovelying welcomed and dearly needed. My Mother was the most to me with a giant heart for everything.

THANK YOU

“ My Aunt Judy was a beautiful and funny lady, who will be greatly missed! She and my Uncle Lewis had a marriage that is rarely experienced by most humans. They came to their marriage equally, and shared themselves; first to each other, and then to others. I have never seen a marriage with this perfect balance...and only hope that my husband and I can do the same.

My heart goes out to my Uncle Lewis, i¿½Debbie, Ruth and Aunt Judy's family!!

I wished that distance didn't seperate our families as it has over the years, because this side of the family is so warm and happy (with that dry sense of humor). i¿½My fondest memory of Aunt Judy is as an adult.. when we went to my Mom's graduation ceremony for Nursing. i¿½I got to see Aunt Judy's humor and her interaction with Uncle Lewis...it was beautiful to witness.

Plus, I hadn't laughed so hard in years!! i¿½

I am sorry, that I cannot attend the funeral, but my love is there with each one of you...my family shares my feelings too...

LOVE to YOU ALL!!
