“ In a moment like this, the fragility of life becomes a realization. i½With this occurrence on the forefront of our family's mind may we preserve Julie's legacy for Jathneil, keep the memories we shared with her close at heart, and continue to embrace each breath we have together in this existence. i½

Uncle Bobby and Aunt Patty, we are truly sorry for your lost. i½We loved and will miss Julie very much and there are so many unforgettable memories and moments. There has not been a time that she has not been included in a recollection of Eric?s childhood. i½Our thoughts and prayers will be constantly with you.

Love Eric, Adrian, Avery, and, Dorian

“ Well, it's been nearly a year since you've left us and there still isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you. I always wonder why God chose to take you and your daughter that night and of course I can never think of a good reason why. If nothing else, it has taught me how much we need to cherish every single moment we have with our friends and family and always let them know how much we love them. I will always remember the many many many fun times that we had together. The majority of my childhood was spent with you and it was a blast. I am no longer afraid to leave this earth knowing that you're waiting for me. I pray for your mother and father and John. May God bless all of you and know that Julie is always with you as she is within all of us.##imported-begin##Ashley Lowman##imported-end##

“ Bob and Patti, though we didn't know Julie personally... we were devastated to hear of her passing. i ½ Her picture shows she was a beautiful person, and reading other tributes of remembrances of Julie shows she was loved by many. i ½ I'm late getting this note to you, but I hope God's healing Blessing of comfort is helping you through this time.. and also as this time goes by, may loving memories of your daughter grow even larger in your hearts. i ½##imported-begin##Joyce and Paul Hosier##imported-end##

“ I last saw Julie on Halloween of 2005 while I was home visiting my parents. ĩ½She brought her young son over trick-or-treating to my parents house and when I opened the door she was surprised to see me. ĩ½Julie introduced me to her son by saying 'honey this is mommy's old babysitter'. ĩ½Wow, did I feel old at that moment, but it was great to see what a beautiful young mother she had become. ĩ½You are all in my thoughts and prayers, my love to you all!##imported-begin##Beth Stein##imported-end##

“ A Psalm for The Dying i¿½
 and friends, I am about to leave: my last breath does not say "goodbye," for my love for you is truly timeless, beyond the touch of boney death.
 I leave myself not to the undertaker, for decoration in his house of the dead, but to your memory with love.
 I leave my thoughts, my laughter, my dreams to you whom I have treasured beyond gold and precious gems.
 I give you what no thief can steal, the memories of our times together:
 the tender love filled moments, the successes we have shared, the hard times that brought us close together and the roads we have walked side by side.
 I also leave you a solemn promise that after I am home in the bosom of God, I will still be present, whenever and wherever you call on me. My energy will be drawn to you by the magnet of our love.
 Whenever you are in need, call me: and I will come to you with arms full of wisdom and light to open up your blocked paths, untangle knots and to be your avenue to God.
 All I take with me as I leave is your love and the millions of memories of all that we have shared. So I truly enter my new life as a millionaire. Fear not nor grieve at my departure, you whom I have love so much, for my roots and yours are forever intertwined.

“ Patty and Bob-

I have no words to express how sorry I am. I wish I could take some of your pain away but we both know that is impossible. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. If you ever need someone to talk to, please call me and I will try to help you as much as I can. Once again, you have my deepest sympathy.

Love you, Jan
