“ Kailey was a close friend of my daughter, Paige. I first met her and her family when they moved in across the street. Memories flood in of the endless nights of the girls running back and forth to each others houses, baking sugar cookies, sleepovers, fishing, homework, volleyball practices and countless giggles pouring outside the bedroom when they were together. My family immediately fell in love with this sweet, energetic, beautiful girl. And yes, Kailey's laugh was contagious as it always followed up with us laughing in tears. As the years went on and her and her family moved away, Kailey's friendship with Paige lasted. She remained a loyal friend to my daughter and I'll always admire that about her. We were devastated beyond belief to hear of her passing and we will always think of her and miss her terribly. To her family, we will pray for you to find peace. Kailey was a special person who left this world too soon. ❤️ My Deepest Condolences,
