“ Nick your mom was the kindest most dedicated woman I've known. Over the years our conversations have left me stronger and uplifted. She will be missed dearly by many. I just want to tell you that she was so proud of you and always believed that you could achieve anything you set out to. You were her life's work and greatest accomplishment, her words not mine. Please find comfort in knowing that you are the son she hoped you would be and you never disappointed her. Her love, support, guidance, and faith will now flow from you to your sons, what a blessing you have to share.
