“ First i would like no love to say that Kathy was a beautiful person. I met Kathy in 1994 she trained me when I first got hired through Sears. The first thing she said was that i look like a deer in headlights.. We had an instant friendship.. She motivated me to go to college and I finished.. It saddens me to write this but gives me a deep joy.. Kathy was a mother, friend and a angel and will be missed..

*Love u my friend...

“ I worked with Kathy at the Sears Warehouse back when it first opened. She had just transferred from the Meadowview Sears and I was working my way through Olivet. We would often carpool to work together after I became full time. Many lunches, conversations and jokes working the dock. She was a wonderful lady!

“ Kathy was the sweetest lady ever. Always had a smile. If I could have hand picked a grandma for our grandchild it would have been her. My heart hurts for the loss of this lovely lady for Blake, Kristy, Bea and Rich. RIP lovely lady!
