“ Your loss is a great one....Kathy was such a nice person and loved her family so very much.

I was Kathy's hairdresser for 30 years. I'm not sure what happened, but 2-1/2 years ago (when my Mom was in the hospital and then passed away - I wasn't at the shop much), Kathy stopped coming to me - she even then seemed to be having some problems. I missed her, but I certainly understood.

After losing my Mother, I know what all of you are going through. Steve, Mike, Scott, Sis, Julie, and Kelly (and of course, Rich) - you have my deepest sympathy. Your Mom will be missed by many, many people. Your fond memories will get you through all of this.

You're in my prayers.

“ Rich,

My heart goes out to you in this time of loss. You and Kathy were truly soulmates and have had a wonderful life together and have raised a beautiful family.

I remember fondly the many evenings I spent in your home sitting at your kitchen table laughing and sharing memories.

Andrew and I will keep you in our prayers during this difficult time.

Peace and God bless you and all your family!
