“ Scott, Rusty, Kimi - having grown up in Chebanse together, I've known you guys all our lives. We kind of lost track of each other over the years and I understand Kelly had been having health issues for a while. She is at peace now and you have our condolences. Please pass along to Kelly's family as well. - Alan & Dawn Webber

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of Kelly - taken way too young from this world. I have fun memories of good times when our parents would get us together as children. I hope your memories keep her close to your heart and as time passes, the laughter of those memories outnumber the tears for your loss.
