“ Kelly your the light in my life. You made are love feel as if it could go on forever . The five years we were together i will hold as the best years of my life. Ive learned so much from you and wish every night that you were still here to give me that beautiful smile and soft kiss i woke up to every morning. You are my soul mate. My better half. You were my hopes and dreams and will always be my greatest treasure.

I wrote this for my kelly in hopes that it will help everyone who is having a hard time with her passing as i am

I see you in my dreams. Almost to good to be true it seems . Dancing, laughing, causing a scene . Your perfume is in the air. Everyone's there,. Moving and pulsing without a care.. Are eyes meet , I cant move my feet. my chest tightens i feel almost frightened but you run up and kiss me, say hay baby you miss me . I break down right there . I don't know what to say i just hold you and pray. God i know this is a dream but please let me stay. I ask you if your ok.. Look around you Ben this is what i do. I sing party and dance the night away. I'm 19 forever i couldn't feel better and every night when you sleep we will be together. It really doesn't get any better .Put your chin up and smile , it may take awhile but one day we will dance forever.

Kelly was a great person , a loving girlfriend and kind to everyone she met. Please learn from her and take that part of her where ever you may go in this life

“ It's hard to believe that you're not here anymore Kelly. You were always there for me when I needed you, when no one else wanted to be. You were one of my best friends. You were funny, beautiful, fun, an all around awesome person. We'd talk about leaving this place to somewhere better, but you went away too soon. We're going to miss you, my condolences to your family and her closest friends. She was a lovely person, a sweet one, unlike anyone I have and will ever meet. Rest in peace Kelly, we'll meet you at the clearing at the end of the path.

“ Kelly was the first one to cut my young son's hair when we first started going to Sport's Clips. She was such a sweet and funny girl, and so patient with him. We talked about her big family and all her siblings. I was so stunned to hear the news. My prayers go out to all her friends and family, and I am so, so sorry for your loss.

“ Such a beautiful person inside & out, that Kelly Beans. Always smiling & laughing. The two things of which will forever be stuck in my mind. The world needs more people like her. In the year that I got to know her at work, she was always one of my favorite people to cut hair with. I'm glad I got to know and share memories with an amazing girl like her. She will never be forgotten and will always be part of the SportClips family. My sympathy goes out to her family & Ben.

*Much love,

“ Kelly, in the short time that we got to know each other from beauty school, you were one of a kind. You were such a joy to be around and put a smile on all of our faces. You were also a wild one wearing bathing suits under our ugly purple smocks. It's true when they say only the good die young... You will always be missed <3 ashley “ Kelly had a smile that would light up a room. Fortunately for us, she also had a smile for every occasion. Her sense of humor and outlook on life always eased the tough days, and made the good days that much better. She made work fun, she loved doing hair, and she loved life. We were lucky to have known her, and we will miss her very much.

“ I just had my hair cut a week ago at sports clips and was shocked when I read the story of her passing. She gave me several hair cuts and shared her passion for horses. She was a very talented hair stylist, my favorite as a matter of fact. This young lady obviously loved life and was a lot of fun to talk to during my visits at sports clips, also obviously a very beautiful young lady. My deepest sympathies and condolences to her family. You all are in my prayers. I can't imagine the loss you must be experiencing.
