Kenny loved his wife, his family, his friends, and his farm. He was generous and giving. He still drove up until late December and handled all of his own affairs. He was sharp as a tack and never needed a calculator. He loved farming and raising his Angus Cattle. It took him forty years to get his homestead and he lived on it almost that many more. He loved to play cards, especially Pinochle and Poker. He was loved by us all and will be missed greatly. He wanted to dance with mom again, and now he will.

Visitation will be from 1 – 7 p.m. at Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Manteno, Il on Sunday, March 7, 2021. Please wear a mask and practice social distancing guidelines. Private family burial will be held on Monday at Deselm Cemetery. There will be a Memorial celebration at a future date.

“ Uncle Kenny had such a gentle spirit. He always had an opinion about politics and was at home on the farm. Love, peace, and comfort cousins. Karen and Tom “ Ken was like a second Dad. Jim and I used to collect news papers from the allies in the neighborhood and store them in Ken's garage against the North wall in an old wooden refrigerator crate. When the crate was full Ken would load up the papers with Jim and me. He'd drive us to the junk yard at 59th near Western. Jim and I would split the cash we got for the selling the paper. When Ken drove us home Jim and I sat in the back seat of the 1966 turquoise Chevy and felt like millionaires! Ken was magical like that. I shared that story with him about a year ago on a phone call and thanked him for all he did. He said, he was happy to help. Ken was gracious and humble. I'll miss him.

My condolences to Linda, Connie, Jim and the entire Cabit family.

“ Uncle Kenny would come to our farm in Peotone and hunt pheasant, and in the fall we would go salmon fishing in Lake Michigan. He was a fantastic, awesome man and he will be missed by all who knew him.
