“ Ken was a very devoted member in the Knights of Columbus as a state officer. We also served many years together in service to our local councils and community. Ken and his wife Marilyn were dear friends to my wife Phyllis and I. We shared many laughs together. When he moved down to Washington Illinois Phyllis and I looked forward to our visits . We went to lunch together and then sat in the courtyard and laughed and talked together while enjoying the beauty of the area. He was very devoted to his wife Marilyn and now will be reunited with her. We will deeply miss my dear friend Ken.
