“ It was quite a shock for me to see in the newspaper that Kenny had passed away. I was his teacher when he was a student at Shabbona when he was in 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grade 25+ years ago! Kenny was a very sweet and special young man. I have such great memories of him. The last time I saw and interacted with Kenny was when he was working at the Bourbonnais McDonalds. It was so great to see him! My sincere thoughts and prayers go out to the family! No one should have to bury a son! It is something that just doesn't make sense!
