“ Kent and I became friends during lunchtime at St. Patrick’s grade school. His mom would pack Hostess fruit pies in his lunchbox. Kent never really liked them..... but I did! He shared them with me in a trade off for my Keebler Fudge Stripes. We spent many a Dec 31 together to celebrate his birthday and ring in the new year. On January 1, Mrs. Boudreau turned leftover cake, in a glass with milk poured over it, into breakfast. I helped roll papers for his paper route. He introduced me to dungeons and dragons and a game called Dungeon. At 40 years old I found that game and purchased it. We were part of a fierce bowling team....we were on the St. Patrick’s basketball team. I joined soccer because of him and he bought my pair of shin pads, simply because I didn’t know what they were. We were tennis partners in high school. I am sorry we did not remain close all these many years later. More sorry that he is now gone with no chance to rekindle a friendship.

“ I know we didn't date for very long but in the time that we did, you were a sweetheart and we had some great times together. I will still always love you and miss you. You still have a place in my heart Kent and I'm very saddened to hear that you're gone. Fly high with the angels love.
