“ To the Family of Kris Underwood, I met Kris when she and I were taking care of our loved ones in the hospital some years ago. My sister called me to share that Kris had went home and I wanted to ask Kris's daughter (Kathryn) to read this at her Mother's "Home Going Celebration." ĩ½I know that your mom loved her some "Jesus." ĩ½I wish that I could have been home to talk with her before she left. But now I want to share these words with her love ones. I believe that if she could speak to you all from "Heaven" this is what she would want you all to know. ĩ½So Kathryn, please be a big girl and read this letter for me to the Family and love ones that are present this day. Love and Respect To each of you and please remember to get your lives in order with "God" because we all are going to leave here one day and we surely want to see our love ones again.

Love,

“ A great sister. ĩ½She loved the Lord and lived life courageously. ĩ½She had known for just over three years that she could not live forever. ĩ½However, she lived as fully as circumstances permitted. ĩ½###imported-begin##Rev. Keith R Eipper###imported-end##

“ I have been honored to have had Kris in my life for over 31 years, as a dear friend, mentor & confidante. I am blessed to have had her in my life. She has walked through the Pearly Gates & been met by Henry, her loving husband, and my heart rejoices with her. She will continue to worship the King of Kings, and she will live on forever. She has touched the hearts of all who knew her. ¶½My prayers are covering her family at this time.##imported-begin##Greg & Jane Rude##imported-end##

“ Mother Underwood left a mark on every person that she met. ¶½She has gone onto a better place, but will be forever missed. I pray that you three of you her "grown kids" find comfort in all of your memories of her as she found comfort in her memories of you as you guys moved on to have your own lives grow. ¶½May each of you continue to be blessed.

“ Kris was a wonderful person. She cared about each person as an individual. She was not someone with selfish motives in relationships; she looked out for others sometimes even more than herself. She was filled with wisdom and on the few occasions I spent one-on-one time with her I was amazed at the profound wisdom & advice she had on life. I wish I would have spent more time with her before she became ill, but I'm grateful for the visits I was able to share with her recently. God bless her; she was a wonderful person & I'm sure she's having a great time up in heaven with God, Henry & everybody. We will keep her children in our family prayers.##imported-begin##Nicole (Lesmeister)##imported-end##
