“ I will miss Larry terribly. My wife Judy and I took a trip with Larry and Marilyn to Branson. On the drive down Larry would keep forgetting to fasten his seatbelt and the seatbelt chime would keep beeping. Since Larry was somewhat hard of hearing he didn't hear the beeping. After a while I couldn't stand it anymore and would tell Larry to buckle up. So whenever Judy or I would forget to buckle up we jokingly said “Okay Larry buckle up “. Larry was a great man and will always be in my prayers. I salute him for his service in the Army and glad he married Judy's sister. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ Such a huge loss to everyone who knew him, and those who didn't. I can't remember a time when he wasn't in my life, as I was only 3, or 4 when he met my sister. Larry was an awesome man, and God is getting a good one.

My personal belief is that you don't have to attend Church every Sunday to show you believe in God. It's how you live your life & treat others. Larry was a prime example of a true Christian, and he proved it the way he lived his life. We could all learn a few things from his example.

We will miss him terribly, but know he's in good hands now & at peace, with Jesus and all the family and friends that have passed before him. And we're all lucky enough to have another truly wonderful Guardian Angel.

All my love, Judy

“ Whenever I had anything wrong to do with plumbing, I could call Larry and he would be there to fix it and I would not even need to be home.. He was such a great friend to Ron and I during those years. If we were home he would come in and sit and visit with us. He did so many things to help us. He always reminded me, about the help I was, to him in high school math class, he would sit next to me. What a great and wonderful and caring and thoughtful person he was. He will be sadly missed. Sending our thoughts and prayers to Marilyn and your family. I will light a candle for you at church.
