“ I have so many good memories of Laura from growing up together, going to school with each other, and then as adults running into each other from time to time and happily catching up on things!! I will always think of her as my sweet and kind childhood friend. My thoughts are with her family and loved ones. I never had the opportunity to meet her daughters in person, but I certainly heard so much about both of you.....:) Vicki and Judy my sincere condolences to both of you.
