“ Dear Barbara, Gayle, Teresa, Pat & Families, My prayers and sympathy for each of you at the loss of your Mom. I remember how gracious and welcoming your Mom was when I would 'overnight' at your house.
May she enjoy eternal peace and may God grant comfort to each of you.

“ I remember flying home for Christmas 1968. Mom was making her usual treats of caramels, divinity and yeast breads for family and friends. There were gifts to wrap and a house to decorate all while she worked at the Arsenal or Mobil Oil. I needed a dress for New Years Eve. When I left, Mom had bought fabric and made an evening gown and jacket for my big evening. It still hangs in my closet. Special memories.

“ Teresa and family - - God Bless you and hold you at this time of sorrow. My prayers are with you. May you find peace in knowing you have your very own guardian angel watching over and waiting patiently for a family reunion at the foot of Our Father.
