“ I just heard about Lee's passing. He was a God send to not only me but my family. He was an excellent real estate agent. Such a pleasure to have met such a good kind family man. He will always be sorely missed.

“ Lynda and I want to send you our deepest sympathy. While attending SIU, Lee and I became friends and fraternity brothers. It does not seem that long ago Lynda and I were at your wedding, everyone was so gracious and kind to us. Lee and I discussed then that we had truly "married up". I always enjoyed my annual Christmas gift and ribbing Lee about airbrushing his photo. Lee would then in his quite and sincere way try to convince me it was untouched. Our thoughts and Prayers to you and your family. Joe and Lynda Eaton

I just heard of Lee's passing. He was a good friend and fraternity brother at SIU. Amazingly after college when I was in the Army at Fort Ord, Lee came through there for basic training. I was able to spend a day or so with him with another fraternity brother in San Francisco. Unfortunately, that was the last time I ever saw him. However, I have many fond memories of him. I am very sorry for your loss.
