

Leo E. Boland

August 18, 1932 - March 25, 2013

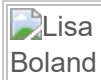

Leo E. Boland, 80, of Bourbonnais, died Monday (March 25, 2013) at Riverside Medical Center in Kankakee. Cremation rites have been accorded as Leo had requested. Memorials may be made to the family wishes. There will be no services. Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Bourbonnais, is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Boland retired from General Foods Corp. in 1990 after 28 years of service. He was born Aug. 18, 1932, in Catlin Township, the son of Jessie James and Dora May Pyle Boland. He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy (Jan. 10, 1951 to Nov. 4, 1954), serving in the Korean War. He liked the St. Louis Cardinals, karaoke, yard work, landscaping and Frank Sinatra. He loved his children very much.

Surviving are his companion of 20 years, Ivy Roberts, and a special grandson, Caleb Roberts; one son, Jeffery Boland, of Bourbonnais; two daughters, Lisa Boland Stout, of Federal Way, Wash., and Lynda Boland, of Tucson, Ariz.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; one sister and brother-in-law, Betty and Harry McGowen, of St. Anne; and one sister-in-law, Martha Boland, of Westville. He is also survived by his dog, Buddy.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, Cleo, Donald and Bob; and one sister, Margaret Horve.

“ Jeff, Lisa, and Lynda,

Sorry to hear about your dad. He was a cool guy, even when we broke the back window of his beloved convertible.

*Rest in Peace Mr. B.
