“ 2/25/08 PLEASE FORWARD TO LEN GLENZINSKI'S FAMILY. THANKS.

What a shock... I just learned of Lenny's death an hour ago. My parents mailed me the Daily Journal notice and I just can't believe it. I remember him as big-haired football wild man in high school, strong as an ox. I played one tackle, he played the other - he was a damned good player and an even better teammate.

What to say about Lenny? He was a bit, um...intense...before our games. I remember coming across him before a home game (junior year? senior?), banging his helmetless head against a locker, psyching himself up for the game. I said, "Lenny, why are you doing that? You're going to hurt yourself." He looked at me, a little trickle of blood on his forehead, and said, "Why the hell aren't YOU banging YOUR head??" So, I did. Man, that hurt!

To all of Lenny's family, please know that I'm praying for him tonight. I last saw him at our 30th reunion in '01. As I was leaving he gave me a big hug and said, "Man, we have to keep in touch." I wish I'd done a better job of that.

God bless you all,

Mark Sloan###imported-begin###Mark Sloan###imported-end###

“ Patty, I was shocked when I read in his name in the paper on Tuesday. I called Cathy but she wasn't home. I never even thought to call my own cousin Sue to see if he was your Lenny. Cathy would always keep me informed on Denny when I worked at SuperValu in Wilmington. I didn't know Lenny personally, just by sight, but knowing Don and Denny he would have been part of the cream of the crop with his brothers. May the Spirit of God hold all of you in arms of quiet rest. May His strength see you through the rough days that are ahead.

Loving Prayers to all of you.###imported-begin###Carol Buente###imported-end###

“ Dear Patti, Girls and All of the Glenzinski family,

Our hearts are heavy with sorrow for all of you! ĩ ħ½ Words cannot express how we feel about all of you. ĩ ħ½ We will never forget the look on all of the Glenzinski's when Tom would walk into Church and Lenny would look up to make sure the rafters could with stand the shock. Always a joke between Tom and Lenny! ĩ ħ½ How we will cherish the time Lenny made it down to our new home in MO and fished and laughed and talked about old high-school stories and his love for his family and friends. ĩ ħ½ You are in our prayers during this difficult time. Know that even though we are not there at this time it makes it even harder being away from family and friends.

“ I am still reeling from the phone call I received from friends in Kankakee telling me the tragic news. Patty, Katie & Laura, including the entire Glenzinski and Rivard families, please accept my heartfelt condolences. "Ginsk", the nickname I gave him long ago when we were associates at Azzarelli Builders, stuck with us every time we came in contact. He was the epitome of a craftsman and thinking man. His knowledge and expertise made it possible that so many well built buildings in the Kankakee area, including many surrounding communities, will stand for many years. A family man - there was none better. Bishop Mac has lost one of their all-time great fans. The northwest corner of the home stands at Memorial Field has lost a "rock". I will always cherish the last phone call I had with Lenny, just a couple of weeks ago. I will never forget our friendship. I will never forget the special times our families spent together. Ginsk will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace Lenny - you are a great man.##imported-begin##Bruce Barber##imported-end##

“ Ken Klipp gave me the news on Tuesday morning that Lenny had died. I was stunned, still am. Attempting to make sense of this tragedy, I spent a good deal of time talking with different McNamara people about Lenny. The term that kept coming up, "great guy", seems to sum up everything about Lenny. I have never known a more caring, loving, thoughtful person. I truly value the time we had together and will always treasure the memories. God's speed, my friend ...##imported-begin##Jim Frogge##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies on the loss of Lenny. Although we haven't kept in touch, I still remember tumbling around with him when I was very young. I was able to view the pictures of Katie's wedding and he looked happy and well. His death has been a shock. I truly believe there is a reason for everything that happens and often our grief at a loss keeps us from seeing it. I hope that you will find comfort in knowing that Lenny has found a peace we all long for. He is watching over and taking care of all of us just like he always has. Let those memories of love and caring wrap around you as you struggle to understand. You all will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you all. I would like to express my deepest condolences to you and your family during this unimaginable time. Katie was a part of my life for several years, and she adored her father. And after meeting him, I could clearly see why. My friend who lost her mother when she was only 25 said, "i still have a relationship with my mother, i talk to her, think about her, am guided by her." I truly believe that his presence will always be with all of you. I am more than sure than Mr. Glenzinski will be a guardian angel to all of you, especially his darling granddaughter Norah.

“Patty, Katie, Laura, and Norah

I can not begin to tell you how much I will miss Lenny. Over the last 20 years, Lenny and all his family have become a very special part of my life - Even to the point of becoming the other brother Andi. I will always remember my Friday Night Date Night invites and the fun we had. I hardly ever said good bye to Lenny without him giving me a big hug and saying he loved me. Lenny is the only man I know that could get this Herscher girl to wear a Mac sweatshirt and go to a Mac game and then to Sammy's for more fun.

Lenny will be greatly missed, but he will let us know he is close and watching. Love you, Lenny and will miss you forever.

“ One week ago today, the Lord called you home to be with him, we still do not know why, maybe someday we will understand. The wonderful memories will last a lifetime. I ½ the Roundhouse and how you were the King of the agitators! Patty and I would end up walking out "acting like we were mad" but we had so much fun... Chicago and Rush Street, just the four of us, you and Patty were not married yet, so we did not stay the night. From having our first born kids together, spending every New Year's Eve together, cookouts, weekend getaways as close as the Holiday Inn 30 miles away, (but we were together and having fun) vacations in Chetek (Len making fun of Mike for not knowing the first thing about fishing), and for just sitting in each other's living room, just catching up on "everything". For the wonderful memories that will last a lifetime, for your unique laugh (Eric was afraid of that laugh when he was a toddler) for all the great agitating to Mike, for all the hugs, the laughter and the tears, for declaring me a genuine "midget",..... You and Patty and the Girls will always be our family,....so rest in peace our gentle giant of a man, for someday we will meet again...##imported-begin##Mike & Mary##imported-end## “ Universal laws were broken when we lost our dear friend, Lenny. After all, a heart so rich and full simply cannot become ill. Lenny's heart touched everyone he met. One only needed to witness him with Patty, Katie, Laura, and Norah to know that his heart couldn't be happier. The Glenzinski family is Lenny's legacy, one of which he was very proud. Lenny will live on through them and through the memories of everyone he knew, because to know him was indeed to love him. He was like a prairie rose, a subtle rarity one couldn't help but notice and admire. We are thankful we had the chance to share in his beauty.
