“ I play in a small band that entertain once a month at the Citadel The C.A.C.E. {Pete's Group} Lilly loved to listen and never missed coming to the room where we played. She had one song that she wanted to hear from me every time we came, and that song was "Crazy" by Patsy Cline. I always loved playing that for her. Rest in Pease Lilly you will be missed. Jerri

“ Miss Lillian shared a room with my mother this past year. When I walked through the front doors of Citadel, she would be in her wheel cheer near the lobby. She didn't speak, but her face was warm & welcoming. Thank you for sharing her life story. My condolences to her family.
