“ Annette and Jeanine,

You are in my thoughts and prayers. Lillian was a very special lady. I remember well her love of music and singing.

She will be greatly missed.

“ I was a nursing student, doing my clinical at our lady of victory when i got to know Lillian. My little sister Tina was dying of breast cancer and it was Lillian who I talked to, shared my grief with, and learned to cope with the stress and pain of dying and death. Tina passed away while I was still at our lady of victory and when I told Lillian how upset I was, she said, Tina's ok now, you need to let her go. I still have the notecard that I wrote that on, it's stuck in my daily devotional, I get to see it often. Lillian enriched my life, no doubt.##imported-begin##Marie King##imported-end##
