“ I have so many memories of Nana growing up , being at their apartment in Berwyn (loved walking down the hallway with the beads), and her always feeding the squirrels. She was always so happy! I remember all the holiday parties with the family, Tommy , Jimmy & Bic & Family. Her and Nono took me out of school one year and took me down to the St. Patrick's parade in the city (and will always remember this, they took the salt and pepper shaker from the restaurant we were at... shhhh, don't tell anyone ;)) We would always go visit her while she was working at JCPennies too! It has been many years but I hope she lived a great life. RIP and she is now back with Nono. My condolences to all the family (and hope everyone is doing well).
