“ " It has been long period of time since seeing Jimmy, but the memories are still fresh in my mind from when the twins were small. He will be missed deeply.

“Dad, you are an amazing, strong-willed man!!!! Your will to live kept you here with us longer than we all expected and I thank God that you spent your last days at your home. Thank you for your fight! I know you never wanted to end up like you did but your acceptance of your illness was a lesson to be learned. You still made me laugh, made me angry!!!!, but, most of all, you knew by just us holding hands while watching TV, you knew I had your back. Mom, Randy, Debbie, Susie and me, we are all going to be ok. We have you watching over us now, yet, still, we can hear you telling us "Lock your doors" and "watch out for the deer" and "Just be careful" "Call when you get there". Always worried until you heard from us. No more worries Dad, you will keep us safe. Maybe we will hit the lotto someday. Dads comment about playing the lotto was "Thats what dreams are made of " And you are right Dad, Dreams are made of what you want them to be. Head to Montana on your many adventures now. See all the places that you dreamed of. Love and Miss you, Julie

“ Although I lost track of Jimmy over the years, he always was kind and thoughtful when I needed someone to talk to. My sincere sympathy goes out to Sharon, his children and grandchildren -- I can only imagine how they are suffering from his loss. Even though I am unable to make it up to Illinois for the services, all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Florence Baughman Monaldi
